What have the auditors said?

Audit of the accounts: Birmingham

| Accounts year | Status recorded by PSAA         | Opinion signed   |
|---------------|---------------------------------|------------------|
| 2024-25       | Delivered by backstop           | 26 February 2026 |
| 2023-24       | Post backstop opinion delivered | 20 November 2025 |

“Delivered by backstop” means the auditor gave an opinion by the statutory backstop date. Many opinions given that way were disclaimed or qualified because the deadline cut the audit short; PSAA publishes which type of opinion each council received only as national totals, so it is not shown here. Auditors’ value-for-money findings are in each auditor’s annual report on the council’s website.

Headed ‘Other Council employees receiving more than £50,000 remuneration for the year (excluding employer’s pension contributions)’; split into ‘Teaching Staff & Staff in Schools’ and ‘Other Council Employees’. Staff within Voluntary Aided and Foundation schools are excluded. Figures include employees with planned termination payments (94 in 2025/26). The accounts describe the allowances figure as “Allowances paid to Members of the Council in 2025/26 totalled £2.6m (2024/25: £2.6m). These figures include Members’ allowances and expenses.”. These are draft accounts and may change at audit. Thresholds are not adjusted for inflation, so more staff cross them each year as pay rises.

Inspections happen at different times, so a rating can be several years old; the date is shown with each. Planning figures are measured differently in each nation: share of decisions made within the statutory time (13 weeks for major, 8 for non-major) or an agreed extension, over 24 months. Recycling rates are measured differently in England, Scotland and Wales, so compare within a nation.

Does the council think something here is wrong?

If you represent Birmingham and think a figure here is wrong, out of date or unfairly presented, email hello@whereyourmoneygoes.co.uk with this page's address and the source you would point to. Every correction is logged, with its date, on the corrections page.

How much of the council's spending does this cover?

Council tax paid for 12.3% of the money Birmingham had to spend in 2025-26. The rest came from government grants (54.7%), business rates (15.0%) and fees, charges and other income (18.0%). That is why a grant cut can raise your bill even when the council has not changed what it does. See where it goes.

What it adds up to

Birmingham: net spending per resident by service, 2025-26, against the median for metropolitan borough councils

| Service                               | Per resident | Median |
|---------------------------------------|--------------|--------|
| Education                             | £976         | £869   |
| Adult social care                     | £459         | £482   |
| Children's social care                | £331         | £340   |
| Public health                         | £104         | £88    |
| Environment and regulation            | £101         | £92    |
| Roads and transport                   | £92          | £29    |
| Housing (not council homes)           | £81          | £39    |
| Parks, leisure, libraries and culture | £65          | £49    |
| Running the council                   | £37          | £60    |
| Other services                        | £21          | £0.34  |
| Planning and development              | £-6.07       | £29    |

- Birmingham spent 26.4% of its gross service spending on its own staff in 2025-26 (median for metropolitan borough councils: 34.4%); the rest went on suppliers, contractors, grants, benefits and other running costs.
- Its published payments of £500 or more came to £1.88bn between 2025-08 and 2026-07. These include capital and council housing spending, so they are not a share of the figures above.
- Payments we classify as consultancy and agency staff came to 15.7% of its staff costs (median among the 3 other metropolitan borough councils whose £500 data is read: 8.6%). The two come from different sources and periods, so this is a guide to scale, not an exact share.

What this data does and doesn't show

- These are each body's own figures, as reported to government in its revenue outturn return. Net spending is after the fees, charges and grants a service brings in.
- Your bill is for 2026-27; it is shared out using the latest published return, which covers an earlier year. The mix of spending changes little from one year to the next, but it does change.
- Council tax is not ring-fenced: this shows your bill in proportion to spending, not what your money bought. Where a precept is set aside for adult social care, it is shown against adult social care.
- No council publishes spending at street or property level, so nothing here says what was spent near you.
- Sub-service lines are the ones the national returns itemise. Councils describe their own budgets differently; their budget books and statements of accounts have more detail.

In proportion to spending, the largest line is adult social care, £620.78.

Who is paid for grounds, street cleaning, roads and bins?

The suppliers paid most for each kind of work, where the council's own labels say what the payment was for (our matching). A council that does the work with its own staff pays mostly wages, which are not in this data, so a short list here can mean the work is done in-house.

Consultancy and agency against the pay bill

Payments we classify as consultancy and agency staff came to 15.7% of Birmingham's own staff costs in its 2025-26 revenue return, against a median of 8.6% for the other metropolitan borough councils read so far. The payments and the staff costs come from different sources and periods, so this is a guide to scale.

What this data does and doesn't show

- It is the council's own record of payments of £500 or more. It leaves out salaries, most staff costs and many internal costs, so it is not the council's whole spending.
- Descriptions are the council's own and vary in quality; some are codes, some are blank, and some supplier names are withheld to protect individuals.
- A large payment to one supplier is often a routine instalment on a long contract that was tendered openly.
- The categories and the matching to services are this site's classification from keywords, not the council's. The rules are on the methodology page.
